With more than 20 years of experience in leadership development, training and coaching, Kevin strives to inspire his clients to find their strengths and expand their capacities to positive change. Kevin's vast corporate experience has seen him holding senior Learning & Talent Development roles with some of the world's largest financial institutions. Since 2011, Kevin has been providing executive coaching, training & facilitation and consulting services to a range of clients in banking, insurance, energy, telecommunication, property, hotel, FMCG, and the service industry. With the wealth of his knowledge and experience working with corporate leaders from diverse industries has developed Kevin's versatility to work with his clients to achieve strategic clarity for improved performance.

Kevin's coaching philosophy is to raise self-awareness and generate responsibilities to enhance professional performance. Kevin utilizes Solution Focused approach in his coaching practice to shift his clients' attention towards those moments that are already working well and focus on taking small steps towards what they want. Kevin's coaching style is engaging and inspiring and he works with leaders to achieve results based on respect, mutual trust, commitment and action.

Kevin enjoys connecting with people and learning from different masters, including feng shui, numerology, healing, hypnosis, and exercise. Kevin loves sports, photography, travelling, music, wine, and understanding different cultures.
